No. 15

University of Omaha, Omaha, Nebr., Nov. 30, 1951

Vol. 31

ODK fall tapping

set for Monday

Omicron Delta Kappa, honorary leadership society for men, will conduct fall tapping of new members Monday morning at 9.

The members to be tapped, all seniors, are seletced on the basis of leadership in the fields of scholarship, publications, athletics, social and religious organizations, music, dramatics

The fraternity will display its colors and insignia in the large showcase in the bookstore.

On every hour, one new name will be placed on the gold key on a black arrowhead in the window. When the new member sees his name, he will receive a miniature arrowhead which he will wear until initiation. The initiation will be held Dec. 13 leadership society, will not tap this fall. Both organizations will tap in the spring at the annual All-School Sing, tentatively scheduled for May 20. Junior classmen will be tapped at this time. The two groups are co-sponsors of the annual sing.

Waokiya, women's honorary

in the faculty clubroom.

and art.

President's Reception will be tonight in OU's auditorium

Parents of freshmen and students new to the University of Omaha will meet the university faculty tonight at the annual President's Reception to be held from 7 to 9 p. m. in the auditorium.

On hand to welcome the guests will be President and Mrs. Milo Bail and the university deans.

Classrooms open

Members of the faculty have been assigned to OU's classrooms and will meet the parents during the reception.

The reception will be on an informal, get-acquainted basis. Leaders in campus activities will act as hosts and guides during the two-hour session.

Musical backdrop

Heading the Reception Committee is Dean of Students John W. Lucas. Associate Dean Mrs. Mary Padou Young is in charge of the food and decorations in the auditorium.

A string ensemble from the Music Department will provide the musical backdrop during the

The President's Reception, an annual event at the university for more than ten years, is beings resumed this winter after a year's absence.

Pouring for the reception are Mesdames Lucas, W. H. Thompson, C. W. Helmstater and F.

OU freshman places poem in annual college anthology

An Omaha U freshman has been named as one of several thousand college men and women to have her poem published in the "Annual Anthology of College Poetry." Jean Janzan's work, "Progress," will appear in the '52 edition.

In announcing the selection, the National Poetry Association commented that the Anthology is "a compilation of the finest poetry written by the college men and women of America, representing every section of the country." Selections were made from thousands of poems submitted to the association.

Christmas vacation jobs

are varied, plentiful

"Jobs for all!"

That's Mrs. Thelma Engle's outlook for holiday jobs. Mrs. Engle, of the student placement office, says that there will be positions for all students making applications.

Approximately 150 jobs remain with the Post Office; others with the railroads, department stores and delivery companies will be open beginning tomorrow.

Students are urged to get their applications in now if they want the top jobs during the holidays.

NO GATEWAY TUESDAY

'Angels' Flight,' Military Ball, 'SAC Salute' highlight activities of Air Force ROTC unit

Omaha U's Air ROTC unit made more than its share of news this week. The unit announced plans for its first Military Ball and an "Angels' Flight," and took part in the city-wide "Salute to SAC" Thursday evening.

April 24 has been named as the tentative date for the Military Ball, which is expected to be the university's most outstanding social function of the year. The Ball will be held at Peony Park. Angels Flight Invitations will be extended to many high-ranking Air Force, city and state officials. In charge of the dance is John R. Fargher, cadet second lieutenant.

The "Angels' Flight," composed of OU coeds, will assist in the planning of the ball. One of the members will be named an honorary officer the night of the dance. This is the first such organization of its kind in the history of either ROTC or

Nancy Hileman, Jane Hoff, Syntha Judd, Carol Miles and Jacqueline Zerbe. SAC salute The entire cadet wing of the ROTC took part in the welcom-

Air ROTC on any campus. Organization by-laws are being. worked out by Jane Engelhardt, ing parade to SAC Thursday evening. It was the groups's initial appearance. The OU Band made its last scheduled marching appearance at this time.

Radio Department set to tape two classics for KOWH broadcast

December will be a busy month for the members of OU's Radio Department.

Rehearsals for "Paul Revere's Ride" are heading into their final weeks, while another program is being prepared for re-cording. The "Revere" rehear-sals are for the choral backing of the narration. Rolly Klop-fleisch is director of the chorus. The program will be recorded before Christmas vacation and will be aired over KOWH on Dec. 16 or Dec. 30 at 10 a.m.

The dramatization of Dicken's "Christmas Carol" is the department's second project. Casting has not been completed, according to Bruce Linton, speech instructor. The program will be given Dec. 28 at 10 a.m. over KOWH.

KWOU went on the air Wednesday for the first time this semester. Speakers were installed on both sides of the Student Center. The station will broadcast from 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. twice each week.

Nebr. State Hist. Soc. State Capitol Lincoln, Nebr.

3 passes as 304 donors sign

Red Cross Bloodmobile unit makes annual visit to campus; donations double '50 sum

With the goal of 288 pints reached, the annual Red Cross Blood Drive donations doubled that of 1950's total of 135. By 2 p.m. Wednesday, 304 students and faculty members had pledged blood.

Beauty Queen judges chosen

Mellam, co-chairmen for the 1952 Tomahawk Beauty Contest, have chosen the five judges and the master of ceremonies for the Dec. 11 event in the auditorium.

Each judge will utilize the knowledge of his particular profession in judging the 30 contestants. They include: A Hollywood talent scout who will judge the overall appearance of the contestants; an Arthur Murray dance instructor will be looking for poise and charm and a clothes buyer will judge style; an artist will use his trained eye in looking for physical. A representative from one of Omaha's television stations will be looking for personality and talent among the coeds.

The co-chairmen also announced that Tuck Moore, news editor of The Gateway, will do a repeat job of two years ago and fill the master of ceremonies' shoes.

The Bloodmobile is stationed in the West Quonset Hut today from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Don Chase, chairman of the Alpha Phi Omega-sponsored drive, reminds students that they can still register up until 15 minu-tes before they donate. He added that of the 804 pledged pints, allowances are made for students not showing up and for those who are physically unable to donate blood.

Organizations

As of Wednesday afternoon, Theta Chi was leading the campus organizations with 61.5 campus organizations with 61.5 percent pledged. Next were Phi Epsilon Pi, 31.5 percent, and Theta Phi Delta, 28.1 percent. Sigma Kappa was the leading sorority with 26.9 percent pledged; Chi Omega, second with 20.6 percent. The faculty had 8.6 percent registered.

ROTC credit

The Air Force ROTC unit is giving a merit to each cadet donating blood. Service points go to the contributing members of Feathers.

Donors are reminded to eat a light, non-fatty food lunch about four hours before they visit the Bloodmobile. Coffee and donuts are served to the volunteers.

APO member John Koch signs up another blood donor for the annual OU-Red Cross Drive. Shown pledging his blood is Keith, Williams of the Air Force ROTC.

Christmas Pop Concert next Friday - -

Aorning convo will feature band, solos, zither, group carol singing

The Christmas spirit and "Old St. Nick" will get an early boost at OU this year at the annual Christmas Pop Concert next Friday in the university auditorium at 9:30

The concert will feature group singing of familiar and favorite yuletide carols with the Omaha University Band forming the musical backdrop. Highlights

This year's program high-lights will be the presentation by soprano soloist Milicent Wheeler of "O Holy Night," songs by the madrigal group, a tenor solo with zither accompaniment by Jack Bourdess, and a number by the brass sextet.

The concert will be under the direction of Dr. Robert Fiester, band director. Classes shortened

For its first student concert of the year, the band will pre-sent Handel's "Messiah," "The First Noel," "March of the Three Kings" and "Adeste Fideles."

Dr. Fiester has planned the concert to appeal to all student and faculty members. Morning classes will run on a shortened schedule.

High school debaters will complete three-day session at OU tomorrow

Eight Omaha and Council Bluffs high schools are participating in the High School Invitational Debate Tournament which started yesterday and will continue through tomorrow noon.

The topic of the tournament is "Resolved: That all American citizens should be conscripted for essential services in the event of war."

The tournament, sponsored by Pi Kappa Delta, debate fraternity, is being conducted on a "round robin" basis, allowing each of the eight schools to debate with other participating schools.

Full schedule

Debates were held yesterday at 4 and 5:15 p.m. with a mixer from 8:30 to 4 p.m. Today, further debates are scheduled for 8:45 and 5 p.m.

The final three debates of the tournament will be held tomorrow starting at 8 a.m. A banquet will conclude the debator's activities, featuring the award ing of a trophy to the winning school and medals to the two debators judged best.

OU sponsors "This is a wonderful opportunity for Omaha University to serve the high schools of our community by providing collegelevel criticism and comments on debating techniques," stated J. D. Tyson, head of the Speech Department.

This is the first time such a tournament has been sponsored by OU in five years. Feathers and APO are awarding points for students acting as time keepers.

Gross, Palmquist top bill at Thirty more OU display of freshman talent

By Berk Forsythe

Freshman participants in the 1951 Freshman Talent Show braved the number 13 Wednesday morning when they performed their 13 acts to a full auditorium. Joanne Gross put on by far the most professional act voice, sang "Sentimental Jour-ney" with a good blend.

The male quartet consisting of Bob Hill, Milton Nelum,

Wayne Harris and Jack Farmer excelled in rhythm with their number "If You Should Ever

a tap dance by Sandra Chullino.

A group of nine freshman girls presented a take-off on the Rodgers and Hammerstein number "There Is Nothing Like a Dame." According to them, the reason for a girl going to college is "to change her name."

Ronald Wright did the vocal solo "I Won't Cry Anymore."

Instrumental solos were provided by Joy Fields with "Concerto for Trumpet," and Don Buck-man's piano solo of a Prelude

Gene Ernst whistled with a recording of "The World Is

Directors of the show were

Dr. Edwin L. Clark, professor of dramatics, and Freshman officers Jerry Welling, Sally Westin and Jean Madden.

Freshman representatives on the Student Council also helped in producing the show, They were Jim Erixon, Bill Beindorff,

Waiting for the Sunrise."

Instrumentalists perform

Other acts included a "Doll Dance" by Joyce Johnson and

Another Quartet

Leave Mo."

by Gershwin.

with her impersonation in pantomime of Beatrice Kay singing "Hooray - I'm Going Away." The timing of her pantomime to the recording was not only perfect, but she also effectively and naturally used every pantomime device imaginable in her interpretation. She was the one performer who thoroughly projected her personality to the audience.

Palmquist emceed

Dick Palmquist kept the show moving as emcee, and proved that he had a cool head under fire plus the ability to make an audience laugh. He was good on some of his impersonations, but over-reached himself by attempting too many.

A voice of very pleasing quality was displayed by Clifford Soubier, who did the selection "Very Good Advice." Marion Tyndale was another vocalist who displayed an exceptional voice. She sang "Will You Remember.'

An all-girl quartet consisting of Donna Reynolds, Berdina Andrews, Beverly Barnett and with Joanne Bohrer singing lead

TRE GATEWAY

Published twice weekly for the University of Omaha by its Department of Journalism. Member of the Associated Collegiate of the Associated Collegiate Press.

Represented for national advertising by Mational Advertising Service, Inc., 420 Madison Ave., N. Y. C.

Subscription rates: One dollar a semester. Phone GLendale 4700, Extension

EDITORIAL STAFF

BUSINESS STAFF Business Manager. Herb Sklenar Advertising Manager. Bob Benecke Circulation Manager. . . Don West

15 PER CENT DISCOUNT

University of Omaha Students on the Purchase of New Tires or Batteries.

Distributors, Wholesalers and Retailers, for—

BATTERIES: Willard-Grant-Frost.

TIRES: Dunlop quality built

BRAKES: Brake adjustment, service relining.

All work performed by expertly trained men.

Same equipment as used by testing station.

TUNE-UP: Generator, starter & regulator repair Electrical repair Sales & Service

Frost Industries, Inc. Frost Battery, Brake & Tire Co.

2565 Leavenworth Street

_ At. 9908 At. 9814

girls are 'angels'

The Omaha University "Angel's Flight" has expanded to 36 members during the past week. This organization is an auxiliary to the Arnold Society, the officer's club for the. Air Force ROTC.

Although the Arnold's Society is a national organization, the "Angel's Flight" is exclusive to the OU campus. Air Force of-ficials here hope that it may spread to become a national organization.

OU girls originate

Originators of the club are the presidents of the four sororities on campus, one Independent, and one unaffiliated. They are Syntha Judd, Nancy Hileman, Jackie Zerbe, Carol Miles, Jane Engelhardt and Jane Hoff. Now the Arnold Society has selected 30 new members for its auxiliary. One of these 'Angels' will serve as honorary officer at the Military Ball.

New members

The new members include Joan Bugbee, Phyllis Wilke, Helen Holtz, June Williams, Bonnie Coleman, Marilyn Si-bert, Sonya Baker, Nancy Spring, Pat Cosford and Marilyn Rogers.

Others are Janet Langhammer, Joanne Gross, Elaine Bloxom, Clarrine Lane, Bever-ly Woods, Carol Blore, Angie Buda, Joanne Larkin, Donna Edstrand and Kathy Johnson.

Completing the list of new members are Diane Purdy, Jean members are Diane Purdy, Jean Salladay, Lois Stokes, Alyce Beachler, Barbara Frederick-son, Charlotte Longville, Jey-neise Delehoy, Juandell Wil-liams, Paula Diehl and Mary Lu Chambers.

'Sticky-fingered Sam' . .

Two weeks ago tonight the University Players brought up the curtain on their first production of the year, "Tobias and the Angel." Although it is agreed that the cast did a good job, the purpose of this editorial is not to sing their praises.

Perhaps you noticed the excellent lighting effects achieved throughout the show. But few in the audience realized that one of those lamps had been taken from the auditorium and replaced only a short time before the play

Several instances involving "Sticky-fingered Sam" and theft within the school have recently come to the attention of The Gateway. These thefts involve both personal and university property. While it is impossible to stop stealing after it has occurred, a little foresight—and hindsight, in this case—could prevent further pilfering.

In the case of personal belongings, you are your own guardian. Keep an eye on your property. Don't leave it even momentarily—between "trips to the coke machine."

And in regard to the property of the university, keep your eye on that, too. This is your school—you have helped build it—and you have paid for some of it.

Protect your property—all of it. Watch out for "Sticky-fingered Sam"—or "Sue."

Fore Reading Room hours may be changed if students present suggestions to librarian

This note was recently sent to The Gateway regarding the use of the Fore Memorial Browsing Library.

"The Fore Browsing Room needs more publicity and more flexible hours. Whenever I want to 'browse' the room has either been closed early or for some other reason is not available. How can one browse with such limitations?"

The Fore Library is open from noon till 5 p.m. each day, and from 5:30 to 7 p.m. each evening. Miss Ellen Lord, librarian, requests that anyone who has definite suggestions for better hours should tell them to the attendant in the Reading Room, or else should submit them at the library.

She said that the Fore Reading Room has good attendance at present, but that few use it from 3 to 5 p.m. She said that these hours could be changed to morning hours if student opinion favors it.

The reading room was dedicated last year. It is open to members of the university and was dedicated in memory of Harry F. Fore, former English instructor.

FOR ARROW UNIVERSITY STYLES

OU cagers face alumni team in season opener

Tomorrow night, Indian basketball fans will get their first look at the 1951-2 OU cagers. The Indians will open their schedule by taking on Ernie Flecky's alumni team at 8 p. m. in the Fieldhouse.

The alums, coached by Flecky, will field a team of 11 former basketball stars at the West Dodge school. They include Don E. Fitch, Glen Eckstrom, Bill Holderness, Jerry Easter-house, Glen Richter, Flecky, Fred Schneider, Guy Oberg, Frank Slogr and Bob Schleiger.

In order to play on the alumni team, each man must have lettered in basketball at OU in the past.

The varsity, after a delayed start, has been rounding into shape the last two weeks. The varsity roster now includes Larry Micheels, Bob Moscrey, Tom Mosiman, Lee Nelson, Bob Rose, Fred Shinrock, Lowell Zeplin, Don Claussen, Bob Mackie, Joe Gurnett, Dick Davis and Don L. Fitch.

A B-team intra-squad game will be played at 6:15 p.m. preceeding the varsity-alumni

The alumni starters: F-Guy Oberg (6-4) F-Frank Slogr (6-5) C-Bob Schleiger (6-6) G-Fred Schneider (6-8) G-Glen Richter (6-8) The varsity starters: F-Fred Schinrock (6-4)

Theta's top Sig Eps, win 'mural grid crown

Theta Phi Delta added another plum to its credit by copping the interfraternity touch football championship. The Theta's swamped Sigma Phi Epsilon, 20-0, in the finals Wednesday, Nov. 21.

In the final sweepstakes tabulation, Theta Phi Delta has a total of 260 points. Sigma Phi Epsilon and the Blackhawks are second and third with 210 and 200 points, respectively.

Blackhawks lead

Blackhawks have a one-game edge in the bowling loop with 18 victories and five defeats Trailing in second position are the Theta's while Sigma Lambda Beta and the Sig Eps are knotted in third place.

Gordon Baker still holds the record for the season's high series mark with 571 total. Baker's team, the Blackhawks, has the high team series with 1.900 pins.

Blackhaws	18	6
Theta Phi Delta Sigma Lambda Beta.	12	6
Sigma Phi Epsilon	11	ż
I S A	10	8
F-80's	Ď	18
Dhi Whallon Di	- 5	10

F-Bob Rose (6-1) C-Don Claussen (6-4) G-Bob Mackie 5-9) G-Joe Gurnett (6-2) or Bob Moscrey (6-0)

Indian grid crew loses season final

Omaha University footballers came within 35 seconds of the upset of the year Saturday, November 17, only to lose by a heartbreaking 27 to 26 margin to Northern Illinois State on the Indian turf.

After the invaders had astounded Omaha with a touchdown in the first 55 seconds of play, the Indians fought back to a 7 to 6 half-time lead and a 26 to 6 margin late in the eventful third period.

Aerials win

But the unsuspected Indian surge died at that point and the Illinois team, with Bob Heimerdinger putting on a oneman aerial display, roared to the sensational last minute climax. Heimerdinger was the man of the hour for Northern as he passed for three touchdowns and was a thorn in the side of Omaha defenders all afternoon.

The frst Indian touchdown came early in the second quarter as Jerry Ziehe plunged over from the two. Aksel Schmidt's kick was good, giving the Omahans a 7 to 6 halftime lead.

Indians surge

In the third period the Indians scored a nineteen point barrage that looked as if it spelled victory.

Keith Christie was responsible for the first two touchdowns on runs of five and 20 yards. The other came when Jerry Ziehe crashed over for six yards out ofter John Jeter had intercepted a Heimerdinger pass.

REACH FOR

VITAMIN D GRADE A MILK

Then Taste and Comparel

Cage managers to meet; Gorr needs officials

All organization managers for the intramural basketball league are to meet in Ernie Gorr's office today at 1:80 p.m.

Today is also the deadline for entries in the 'mural cage wars in both the "A" and "B" loops.

Gorr is looking for the services of four men who will act as basketball officials in 'mural competition.

Ak-Sar-Ben provides reduced rates for Omaha U skating enthusiasts vity tickets, all Omaha U students can take advantage of skating facilities at the Ak-sarben rink at a reduced rate.

The days and times have been been set as follows: the nights of Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday from 8 to 10:15, and Sunday mornings from 10 to 12:30. Afternoon sessions will also be open at the same reduced rates.

Activity cards will admit the holder for 40 cents plus a reduced rate if skate rental is

The above days and times are regular public sessions also.

However, Intramural Director Ernie Gorr is negotiating to obtain the rink for private use.

Hysteria reigned from the moment he heard the details of those quick-trick cigarette mildness tests. First he giggled . . . then he guffawed . . . wound-up rolling in the aisle! He knew that the "single sniff" test or the "one puff" test didn't prove anything! Millions of smokers have reached the same conclusion - there's just one test that really proves cigarette flavor and mildness!

It's the sensible test . . . the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke - on a pack-after-pack, day-after-day basis, No snap judgments! Once you've enjoyed Camels for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), you'll see why ...

After all the Mildness Tests . .

Camel leads all other brands by billions

Members hear recordings at English meet

"The Club" had its first meeting Monday evening at the home of Dr. Ralph Wardle. About 20 members of the honorary English club listened to recordings of Shakespeare's plays and readings of contemporary poetry.

An executive council was named to plan future meetings. Writing meetings will be conducted by Roy Carlson and Don Badger, and literature discussion meetings will be planned by Bob Harwick and Nancy Jones.

New members of "The Club" are Evelyn Bowerman, Mary Ann Conley, Marilyn Cowger, Mary Gardiner, Sarah Garro, Marlene Gatz, Audrey Green-berg, Delmar Hansen, Doris Hanson and Doris Harris. Others are Laurel Main, Leonore Marx, Carol Miles, Charles Murray, Nina McÉwen, Edith Sparks and Amos Turnbow.

Thanksaiving treat

Sigma Kappa's will name 'Typical Fraternity Man'

Greeks will bestow another new title on an OU fraternity man at the Sigma Kappa Violet Formal next Friday evening. Five men will vie for the "Typical Fraternity Man" honor. Candidates are: Jim Goode, Sig Lamb; Ben

Tobias, Theta Phi Delta; Jack Fraenkel, Theta Chi; Dick Mc-Kee, Sig Ep, and Jerry Belzer,

Town, Gown group hears SUI teacher

Hew Roberts, professor at the State University of Iowa, addressed the Town and Gown Club meeting yesterday at 6:30 p.m. The meeting was held in the faculty clubroom.

The subject of his address, "The Mayflower and the Success," concerned the people who comprised the travelers on the Mayflower and the Success, an Australian convict ship which is now an American museum

Phi Epsilon Pi.

The semi-formal dance will be held at the Carter Lake Club from 9 p.m. to midnight. Intermission entertainment will be presented by the Sigma Kappa Trio, Clarine Lane, Jody Pierce. and Jean Cullen.

Meanest and sweetest actives and pledges also will be announced.

Ray Backman and his orchestra will play for the dance. Jody Pierce is dance chairman, and Marge Jones is in charge of decorations..

Delta Sigs plan industrial tour, Christmas drive

R. S. Johnston, manager of the Credit Bureau of Omaha, Inc., spoke to members of Delta Sigma Pi at their regular professional meeting Wednesday night in the student lounge. The subject of his talk was "Credits and Collections."

Members planned to make their first industrial tour of the year this week. The Omaha World-Herald will be the object of their inspection.

Plans were discussed for a Christmas party to be held Dec. 15. Pledges of Delta Sig will participate in Salvation Army Christmas Drive this year.

Pan-Hell to discuss mid-year rush rules

Omaha University Pan-Hellenic Council will meet next Wednesday at 5 p.m. to discuss second-semester rushing. Rules and dates will be set at this decorations of a large black silhouette of a dancing couple.

Table decorations were top hats quet was held at the Fontenelle Black Mirror Room.
Phi Ep mothers were honored rer, Berdena Andrews, Bev Barnett and Donna Reynolds sang "You and the Night and the Music."

with a similar smaller silhou-

The Chi O Quartet, Joan Bohette perched on top.

Jo Smith and Mardell Squire, chairmen of the dinner-dance, were assisted by Janet Brace, Marilyn Summers, Louann Focht and Ginger Pearson.

Phi Eps . . .

Phi Epsilon Pi members and their dates dined and danced at the Founders Day Banquet last Saturday. Decorations for the dance followed a November nocturne theme.

Fraternity members presented a skit on fraternity life during the intermission. The ban-at a Mother-Son Reception Nov. 18. Each mother received a gardenia corsage. A skit was presented.

Theta . . .

Greeks hold holiday parties at the Fontenelle Hotel. The theme was carried out in the

"You and the Night and the Music" was the theme of the Chi Omega annual dinner-dance held last Saturday

decorations center on fall

A Thanksgiving evening party was given by Theta Phi Delta alums for members and their dates. The scene was at the Ballerina Ballroom.

Entertainment was provided by Jim DuBois, who sang "Ole Man River" and "Because," by Johnny Vana, who played sev-eral marimba solos and tap Refreshments were served following the entertainment.

CLOSE-OUT SALE

50% Below Retail

OMAHA APPLIANCE CO.

1716 Jackson Street

I Can Hear It Now Vol. 2 $3.74 I Can Hear It Now Vol. 3 _____$3.74

Orig. Broad. Gast Albums

South Pacific ____$4.37 Gentlemen Prefer

Blondes _____$4.37 Pal Joey $4.37 Out of This World $4.37 Miss Liberty $3.80

Hot Jazz Classic Albums

Fletcher

Henderson ____$2.15 Bessie Smith ____$2.15 Earl Hines _____$2.15 Frank

Teschemacher __$2.15 All on "78"

Many fine single selections from which to choose.

Singers plan Xmas recital

Members of Kappa Lambda Mu, women's musical club, and Miss Ellen Lord, OU librarian, will present a Christmas program, Dec. 10 in the faculty clubroom. Miss Lord will give excerpts on Christmas lore and "Old Saint Nick."

The music club will sing Christmas carols as a Madrigal group. Faculty and students are invited to attend.

Sig Ep's plan more Christmas activities

Plans for the Christmas season are being made by Paul Fesier, the new social chairman of Sigma Phi Epsilon. He replaces Don Sarooian.

A party, dance and toboggan party are on the agenda. The fraternity also announced that Dick McKee is their candidate for "Typical Fraternity Man."

Attend the opening basketball game tomorrow night in the

Joan Gross Theta Chi's dancequeen

Joanne Gross was named the 1951 'Sweater Girl' at the an-nual Theta Chi Sweater Dance last Friday. The dance was held at the Blackstone ballroom for members of the fraternity and their dates.

Miss Gross, a member of Alpha Xi Delta, was presented at the intermission. Mrs. C. Eugene Hampton, the former Janice Leland and last year's "Sweater Girl." presented a necklace to the winner.

Other candidates were Ann McTaggart, Laura Dopita, Sally Urban and Syntha Judd. They received compacts from the fra-

Intermission activities included a skit announcing Lee Damhoff as "The 1951 Sweater Girl." After Damhoff was interviewed by Jack Fraenkel, Don West, chairman of the dance, presented the candidates and the

Theta skip try successful as pledges hide in ballroom

Theta Phi Delta pledges evidently didn't like the idea of having a meeting Monday, Nov. 19. They all came to school but skipped out on the actives, taking Bill Ryan, vice-president, with them. The actives finished up the business at hand and lit out in hot pursuit.

Naturally the pledges' clues led all over town: Hillside Sta-bles, the South Omaha Police Station, the Birchwood Club, Riverview Park, and Ak-Sar-Ben. Some parts of the clues were conveniently written in Russian.

The actives weren't smart enough to catch their errant little brothers. At the midnight deadline, they had to be told that the pledges were hiding out at the Ballerina Ballroom, 18th and Dodge.

OUWI plans party for needy children

Appriximately 35 needy children between the ages of six and 12 will be entertained at an OUWI Christmas party Monday, Dec. 10. It will be held from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. in the West Quonset Hut.

The children will be chosen through the Child Welfare Bureau. A visit from Santa Claus. gifts for everyone, refreshments and games will comprise the

More than just a liquid, more than just a cream ... new Wildroot Liquid Cream Shampoo is a combination of the best of both.

Byen in the hardest water Wildroot Shampoo weahes hair gleaming clean, manageable, curlinvising without robbing hair of its natural oils, Seapless Sudsy . . . Lanelin Levely !

THREE SIZES ser ser ser

Pol. To hosp bair neat between shampees use Lady Wildroot Gream Hair Dressing.